

Worship Minister Opening:

Memorial Baptist Church is looking for a mission-minded worship pastor to assist the new pastor (Mark W. Christy – see his blog at www.battlehardenedbeliever.com) as of December 2020 with the task of revitalizing the church. While the demographics of Channelview, TX (a suburb of Houston) are excellent, the church has struggled due to the elongated absence of a pastor compounded by COVID.

Our new pastor envisions a church which seeks first and foremost to please God even if this means that the feelings of people have to be upset. We shall be a church that preaches, teaches, and lives the Scripture. We shall be a church that is fully committed to expository teaching. We shall be a church that prizes holiness in our daily walk with our Lord. While we will falter, we will repent along the way and remain committed to the truth. Furthermore, we will spare no effort in addressing issues between ourselves even if this requires a confrontation. In terms of worship, we shall not be a church that desires to simply excite the emotions. Rather, we want know (intellectually) the meaning of the songs we use in worship even as we express ourselves appropriately and emotionally in response to the truths that are written within the songs.

After reading the previous description of the church envisioned by our new pastor, please prayerfully consider whether or not you may be the man God is calling to serve with us. As you pray, please note that you will need to live near Channelview, have a primary income (as the compensation will be relatively low at least at first), have a missionary heart, and have a character that aligns with 1 Timothy 3:1-7.
