Gleanings from select scripture passages in the Old Testament and New Testament

by Rev. Rick Fisher

Rev. Rick Fisher is Vice-President of Blackaby Ministries International. Prior to joining Blackaby Ministries, Rick served as pastor of several churches, among them being 10 years at Lexington Baptist Church (SC). He is a frequent speaker on topics related to spiritual leadership, revival/awakening, prayer/prayer ministry, building a godly legacy in the home and other ministry-related topics. In writing this prayer, he utilizes themes and statements found in the Blackaby's Flickering Lamps material and builds a prayer focus for the local church to embrace and experience together.

Day 2 Repentance
Rick Fisher
Read Isaiah 59:1-2
"Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save, nor His ear heavy, that it cannot hear. But your iniquities have separated you from your God: and your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear."
We began our devotional prayer journey on Day One by seeking to know God more fully; especially to know His character, who He is. As we see God for who He is, we begin to see ourselves for who we are. When Isaiah encountered God (Isaiah 6), he experienced God's holiness, the centerpiece of His character. Isaiah's first reaction was to see himself in light of a holy God: "woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips."
God intends for His people to walk in fellowship with Him and in this love relationship, He speaks to reveal His purposes, plans and ways. But scripture reminds us that there is a problem in the relationship and the problem is that our sin separates from God and the awareness of His presence. Isaiah 59:1 clearly states that the issue is not with God, but with us.
Do you sense you are hearing from God, that you have an awareness of His presence? Does your church have a clear understanding about what God is saying to you and how He is calling you to join Him and His work? Do you view life from God's perspective? Could it be there is unconfessed sin in the lives of God's people that is preventing hearing His voice, sensing His presence, and knowing His will?
God waits for us to adjust our lives to His standards before He chooses to speak to us. The first step in our adjusting is repentance, agreeing with God about our sin, naming the sin before Him and seeking His forgiveness.
Prayer
God, we have sinned against You. Search our hearts. Reveal our sin as individuals and as a church. As You show us our sin, we will repent and turn from that sin, seek Your forgiveness and cleansing so You can do a fresh work in and through us. (Psalm 139:23-24; I John 1:8-9; Malachi 3:7)

	"And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence."
	Begin by reading the larger context for this verse: Colossians 1:15-18. This picture of Christ helps us understand His role in creation, salvation, and the work of His church. He is the Head of the church, the sole authority.

	People do not build the church from their plans and efforts; Christ as the Head builds the church (Matthew 16:18). He does this through a personal, loving relationship with His people as He reveals His mind and heart to them. From this daily relationship of prayer and time in scripture, Christ empowers and uses His people to see His church become all that He purposes.
