Mike Martin
SJBA Vice Moderator

I recently traveled to the Pacific Northwest. I saw something new in the Seattle Airport I had not seen before. They had robotic wheelchairs. These required no effort on the rider and needed no one to push them. After they delivered its passenger, the chair would return automatically to its point of origin. We definitely live in a changing time.

As you know, our association is going through a time of transition as well. We are adapting to changing financial support, new styles of leadership, and relocation of the association office. How can we prepare for these changes? Be in prayer, develop a kingdom mindset of ministry, and plan to attend and participate in the Annual Meeting in October. The meeting will be held at Baker Road Baptist Church on October 21. The message of the gospel will not change but we must be willing to adapt our methods of operation to maintain relevancy in these changing times.

I look forward to seeing how God uses and changes our association as we step into the next era of ministry together.

May God Bless You,
Mike Martin
