Missions Evangelism

Jason Shuttlesworth, Pastor,
Wooster Baptist Church, Baytown

Greetings SJBA family! It is my privilege to serve as team leader of our SJBA Missions Evangelism Team.

An old hymn written by Gene Bartlett says, "Set my soul afire, Lord, set my soul afire, Make my life a witness of Thy saving power. Millions grope in darkness, waiting for Thy Word, Set my soul afire, Lord, Set my soul afire." That's an excellent hymn and makes for a tremendous prayer also! Is that your prayer? Is that the prayer of our churches? I hope so!

In Matthew 4:19, Jesus told Peter and Andrew, "Follow Me and I'll make you a fisher of men." Jesus was very straightforward in providing vision and direction! If you follow Me, this is where we will be headed. It should not have surprised them that after His resurrection Jesus said in Matthew 28:19, "Go and make disciples of all nations." He had been clear and consistent.

What Jesus said in Matthew 4:19, not only serves to give vision and direction, but it is also a promise. If you will follow Me, said Jesus, I will transform you into a person who reaches people for Me and My kingdom. Follow Jesus closely, day by day, step by step, be humble and teachable and let Him shape you as a witness. Following Jesus closely should result in us developing a deeper love for lost people and a willingness to reach out to them.

Someone once said, "If you aren't fishing, you are not following!"

Today, various evangelism training programs, materials, and apps are in existence. These can be found through our North American Mission Board and through state conventions. However, we want to provide evangelism training for our own association. Our plan is to have a training event on Saturday, May 2 from 9:00 to noon. We will be bringing in Austin Cooper to direct us in what he calls Kindness Outreach. Please mark your calendars now, and plan to be in attendance.

This is not about having another event and being busy. It is about following Jesus and becoming better fishers of men. Pray for us. Pray for this event. Join us. Keep pressing onward.

Baptist Student Ministry

Tina Wash, Director

Spring Semester at BSM

Phenomenal start despite class schedule changes. But the priority of Bible Study remains.

Despite jobs, schedules, "life", students are firmly embedded – even if that means 10 minutes to pick up a devotion. I am so grateful to those who, even though they cannot always stay, they make time to pray and study their Bibles.

Recently, we had a visitor who heard the truth of God for seemingly the first time, then fear and uncertainty attempted to cast doubt. One group of students stayed with her after all others had left. Bibles on the table, fingers on verses, tears in eyes, hugs, and hearts filled to overflowing with the truth presented fully and honestly and applied to her life.

That is the purpose and the blessing of BSM. I am so very grateful for all God is doing and for each heart growing in faith and applying that faith willingly.
